Western astrology

Tropical zodiac

Sun	Pisces
Moon	Libra
Rising	Taurus
Midheaven	Capricorn

Your Sun, Moon and Rising

Sun describes your sense of identity, vitality and purpose. In Pisces (water, mutable), this is often expressed imaginatively, compassionately and fluidly. It sits in your 11th house, the area of friendships, communities and hopes for the future.

Moon describes your emotional needs, instincts and what helps you feel safe. In Libra (air, cardinal), this is often expressed diplomatically, aesthetically and in relationship with others. It sits in your 6th house, the area of daily work, routines, service and health habits.

Your Rising sign (Ascendant) is Taurus — often linked to how you meet the world and first impressions.

Your Midheaven is Capricorn — often linked to your public path and aspirations.

Chart ruler: Venus, the traditional ruler of Taurus. Venus in Aquarius · 10th house.

Method: tropical zodiac, whole-sign houses, Astronomy Engine ephemeris (accurate to well under 1' for the planets).

Vedic astrology

Human Design

Manifestor · 2/4

Type	Manifestor
Strategy	To inform
Authority	Emotional (Solar Plexus)
Profile	2/4
Definition	Single

Manifestors are described as initiators: a motor connects to the Throat without a defined Sacral, so energy comes in bursts. Informing the people affected before you act is suggested to reduce resistance.

Signature: Peace. Not-self theme: Anger.

Authority: Emotional (Solar Plexus)

Your defined Solar Plexus moves in an emotional wave. The suggestion is not to decide in the high or the low, but to wait for clarity to settle over time — sleeping on it, often more than once.

Profile 2/4

Line 2, Hermit: has natural gifts that tend to emerge when others call them out, and needs time alone

Line 4, Opportunist: thrives through a close network, where opportunities come via people already known

Method: Personality at birth, Design when the Sun was 88° earlier, Rave Mandala gate wheel. Human Design is a modern synthesis, not a scientific system.

Numerology

Pythagorean method

Astrocartography

Planetary lines near your birthplace

Lines near your birthplace (Chicago, Illinois, United States)

Mars MC — 238 km · Strong influence. Here your Mars is overhead — tied to career, reputation and public life. Astrocartography links this line with ambition, entrepreneurship and getting things done at work; the side to be mindful of is burnout and clashes with authority. Your Mars is in Aquarius (your 10th house), so here it tends to come through independently, inventively and with the wider group in mind.

Saturn MC — 557 km · Moderate influence. Here your Saturn is overhead — tied to career, reputation and public life. Astrocartography links this line with slow-built authority, responsibility and lasting achievement; the side to be mindful of is pressure, hard work and delayed rewards. Your Saturn is in Capricorn (your 9th house), so here it tends to come through patiently, responsibly and with long-term aims.

Venus MC — 670 km · Background influence. Here your Venus is overhead — tied to career, reputation and public life. Astrocartography links this line with work in art, design, beauty or diplomacy, and being well-liked professionally; the side to be mindful of is valuing popularity over substance. Your Venus is in Aquarius (your 10th house), so here it tends to come through independently, inventively and with the wider group in mind.

The Expanded Blueprint adds more lines and the major cities that sit on your lines.

These describe themes tradition associates with each line — they are not predictions of events.
